Re: Thank you for your donation!

Dear Peter,

On behalf of the entire World Central Kitchen team, I want to thank you for your donation of $25,000.00 made on 4/17/2020 in support of our relief efforts in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

After five Category 5 Atlantic hurricanes in the past four years, a never-ending fire season in California, increasing floods and lingering droughts, it is clear this is now the new normal – brought on by our changing climate. These disasters are becoming more prevalent and more powerful, and oftentimes affect our most vulnerable populations.

As a result, the need for urgent relief and long-term resiliency has grown exponentially, and your support will enable our team to allocate resources immediately, where they are needed most.

And we will do so with speed and urgency. Since its inception, WCK has served over 16 million meals following hurricanes, wildfires, earthquakes, tsunamis and more. In the past year alone, we responded to 19 disasters.

WCK's hot meals are more than sustenance. In many cases our meals often bring hope to people like Shayla whose family lost their home in Nebraska floods; Habib who kept watch from sunset to sunrise every night to warn the rest of his Indonesian village of any coming tsunamis or danger; and Susan who was in her bed when a hurricane hit her Florida home and completely destroyed everything.

"When we wait, people go hungry. We need to feed them. Not tomorrow, not a week from now, not a month from now. Today." – José Andrés, WCK Founder

Thank you for your belief and trust in our mission.

Sincerely,

Nate Mook
CEO
